

Leading Team's First Offsite with RKE's Expertise

Context

Fundstrat, a Buy-side Equities Analysis firm, wanted to combine fun and learning at their first company offsite.

Client Task

Bring insight, data, and facilitated interaction to drive notable improvement in team performance while allowing time for bonding through other activities.

RKE Solution

Combined pre-event work with culture and personality analysis to reveal team blind spots and drive conversation in combination with facilitating team competitions.

Client Results

An excellent first offsite for this team where participants deepened their trust in the Fundstrat story, their colleagues, and themselves as builders of the future.

The RKE Difference

Data-Driven

Multimodal Learning

Best Team On the Field

Testimonial

"RKE Partners delivered exceptional value in helping our team understand our collective dynamics, with 70% of participants highly recommending the experience. The interactive sessions fostered team cohesion and provided practical tools for enhanced workplace collaboration."
